!!!PLEASE NOTE CHECK-IN AND JUDGING SCHEDULES.!!!

Exhibits that do not conform to the rules will be disqualified.

Rules:

1. All exhibits must be grown by the exhibitor.
2. Articles improperly classified will not be judged.
3. Where there is no competition a ribbon may be given (if worthy) with corresponding money paid. If in a class no exhibits are worthy, neither ribbon nor prize money will be paid. The decision of the judge is final.
4. Fair officials will take every precaution for the safe-keeping of exhibits after their arrival and arrangement in the building, but will not be responsible for any damage or loss that may occur.
5. Articles must be properly tagged before arriving on grounds. Entry tags will be mailed after entry deadline.
6. Each exhibitor is limited to one (1) entry per class. Except in Division 7 - Roses, where a maximum of two (2) entries per class is permitted. Age of contestant on July, 10, 2022 determines the category for competition.
7. If exhibit is left prior to check-in times, exhibitor must understand exhibit is left at his/her own risk.

8. All horticulture classes are open to any amateur grower. Commercial exhibitors are not eligible.
9. Potted plants must have been in possession of exhibitor for three (3) or more months prior to show. Exhibitors must provide saucers and include with your potted plant for display.
10. Containers for all cut specimens will be furnished by the State Fair. Wedging is permitted.
11. Only one (1) plant per container with exception of begonias, coleus, hanging plants and any large house plant, container and plant size unlimited.
12. Plants should be groomed before exhibiting. Remove dead foliage and spent flowers. Exhibits in bad condition will not be accepted.
13. There will be no check-out for first session and no check out for 2nd session cut flowers. Ribbons from these classes may be picked up on Exhibit check-out day Sunday the 21st of August.
14. Horticulture definitions:
 - A stalk is the stem of the plant.
 - A spike is a lengthened flower cluster (gladiolus).
 - A spray is a main stem with wide side branches and blooms on all sides.
15. Judges may subdivide or combine horticulture classes by cultivar, color or type. Horticulture exhibits are judged for horticulture perfection, not just for size or age.
16. An exhibitor under the age of 18 by July 11, 2022, must enter the junior horticulture. If a class is not offered in the junior division, exhibitors may then enter regular divisions. (Example they may enter Division 10 Class 312 Giant Cactus Zinnias but they cannot enter Division 4 Class 146 Giant Zinnias. However, they may enter Division 3 Class 60 Gloriosa Daisy because it is not offered in Division 10).

PLEASE NOTE 1ST AND 2ND SESSION CHANGES FOR CUT FLOWERS
There will be two different shows for cut flowers. Please pay attention to which session you are entering.

Wanda Rodgers Memorial Award

Sponsored by Mike and Jeanie Wyatt

Wanda Rodgers(1934-2016) loved the State Fair of West Virginia and served as Superintendent of Department L - Needlework for 30 years. The beautiful quilts were her Specialty. The State Fair Flower Show also held a very special place in her heart and she exhibited in Department M - Flowers for over 40 years. She treasured and babied her African Violets. Each year, she won numerous ribbons and year after year she has Best of Show. This award will be presented annually in her honor and will be presented to the exhibitor with the Best of Show in Department M, Division 1 African Violets.

Prizes: $25.00 with Rosette and Plaque

Mary Bell Memorial Award

Sponsored by Mike and Jeanie Wyatt

Mary Bell (1912-2003) was an exhibitor in Department M, for over 60 years.

She was a certified flower judge, active garden club member and known throughout the community for her beautiful artistic flower arrangements.

When her health failed and she had to move to an assisted living facility, she continued to enter flowers that she was able to raise in her room and each year, won ribbons. The State Fair Flower Show held a very special place in her heart and this award will be presented annually in her honor.

This award will be presented to the adult exhibitor who wins the most points in Department M.

Points for the Mary Bell Memorial Award

Blue Ribbon = 3 points

Red Ribbon = 2 points

White Ribbon = 1 point

Prizes: $50 with Rosette and Plaque

A large permanent plaque with the winner's name will be displayed in the administrative building during the off-season and in the flower show during the annual Fair.
